

Finance Audit Policy and Scope

Purpose of Financial Audit

The purpose of financial audit is to ensure accuracy, completeness, and reliability of financial statements.

Audits verify compliance with accounting standards, internal controls, and regulatory requirements.

Audit Scope

The audit covers revenue, expenses, assets, liabilities, and financial disclosures.

Area	Included in Audit
Revenue	Yes
Expenses	Yes
Payroll	Yes
Tax Compliance	Yes